

ALLISON VENEZIA TRIMBLE

OF COUNSEL / DALLAS METRO OFFICE

Allison Venezia Trimble is an attorney in Harness IP's Patents and Patent Prosecution practices. She is a dedicated attorney with a primary focus on preparing, drafting, and prosecuting patent applications within diverse technological sectors, including the dynamic domains of automotive and aviation.

Her clients appreciate her adeptness in providing high-level counsel, her effective communication skills, and her amiable disposition, making her a trusted advisor in the realm of intellectual property.

Additionally, Allison offers valuable guidance to clients on their business strategies and global patent portfolios.

PRACTICE AREAS

Patents; IP Transactions; International

INDUSTRIES

Automotive & Autonomous Vehicles; Consumer Products; Manufacturing; Mechanical & Electromechanical

BACKGROUND

Beyond her professional role, Allison enjoys spending time with her husband and baby boy, and her passion for running takes center stage as her primary physical activity. For moments of relaxation and stress relief, she finds solace in baking.

MEMBERSHIPS

- Intellectual Property Law California Lawyers Association

EDUCATION

J.D., Arizona State University, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
2018

B.S., Mechanical Engineering, Northern Arizona University, 2013

Direct: 469.777.5375
avenezia@harnessip.com
Download vCard

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

Arizona

California

Texas

United States Patent and Trademark Office

PUBLICATIONS

- “Extending Cuius: Supreme Court Holds § 315(b) One-Year Time Bar Determinations Are ‘Final and Nonappealable,’” The National Law Review, April 22, 2020
- “PTAB Precedential Decision on 35 U.S.C. § 315(a)(1) Shows Dismissed Civil Actions Still Bar IPR Institution,” The National Law Review, October 11, 2019