With over two decades of patent law experience as a licensed patent attorney, Ed is a seasoned attorney with a deeply rooted passion for intellectual property law. He has been a trusted advisor to clients throughout his career, providing a wide range of patent-related services, demonstrating his multifaceted experience in both patent prosecution and litigation.

Ed's primary focus revolves around the meticulous preparation and prosecution of patent applications. He excels in counseling clients on their patent portfolios, offering invaluable insight into the nuances of patent drafting techniques and strategies. Ed's keen legal acumen allows him to secure enforceable and highly valuable patents for his diverse clientele.

Ed's unique blend of litigation experience and patent prosecution prowess allows him to secure and protect the IP rights of his clients. He is personally listed on over 260 issued U.S. patents that span an array of technological areas. Additionally, he has contributed to the preparation and prosecution of hundreds of U.S. patents in several industries.

PRACTICE AREAS

Patents; IP Transactions; IP Litigation; PTAB Proceedings; International; Trademarks & Service Marks

INDUSTRIES

Electrical, Computer & Internet; Mechanical & Electromechanical; Semiconductor Processing & Devices; Software & Information Technology; Telecommunications & Wireless Technology

BACKGROUND

Ed's interest in patent law was sparked by his career as a U.S. Air Force electromechanical technician working with both intercontinental ballistic missile and intermediate range nuclear missile electronics, control, power generation, and security systems.

He began his career as a patent litigator and has an impressive track record of conducting and defending depositions of both fact and expert witnesses in patent cases. Ed's proficiency extends to the preparation of pleadings, Markman briefs, and motions for summary judgment, as well as the skillful navigation of discovery processes and their intricacies. Clients facing patent, trade secret, and trademark disputes have sought his counsel, demonstrating their trust in his intellectual property law experience.
